The Sexual Violence Prevention & Response Working Group has invited one staff member to participate.

The Working Group is a standing group at DePaul that encourages collaboration and information-sharing across the university regarding DePaul's policies, procedures, programming, training, and messaging. The Working Group will continually review best practices in prevention, awareness, education, and response, and will contribute to the implementation of such best practices at DePaul.

Number of Available Seats: 1

Term length: 2 years

Meetings and time commitment: Approximately 2-3 90-minute meetings per year and potential small group work between meetings.

If you are interested in serving on the Sexual Violence Prevention & Response Working Group, please email Staff Council (staffcouncil@depaul.edu) with a Statement of Interest by the end of the day on Friday, March 18, 2016.

Please be sure to include the following information:

• Your department
• Your length of service at DePaul
• A brief explanation of your current position and what you do here at DePaul
• A brief explanation of your involvement within the DePaul community that is not directly related to your job duties (if any)
• An explanation of your interests and experiences that recommend you for selection to serve on the Sexual Violence Prevention & Response Working Group
